Local Identifier do not use names	Date Complaint Received	Action Taken	Date Complaint Closed	Disposition
17-0021	8/2/2017	The complainant sent in a letter complaining that he and others have been arrested under exaggerated charges so that they are held with higher bonds and can't get out of jail. He said this is happening to Hispanics so they can be deported. I reviewed the case on 08032017. The case was investigated by Sgt. Villasenor and assisted by Narcotics Detective JL Bice. The complainant was called in for threatening people with a gun and saying he was going to kill them. Officers investigated and found that the complainant did possess a firearm out in the open and interviewed witnesses who said he told his wife to get the neighbor who he suspected of sleeping with his wife to come out cause he was going to shoot him. The complainant told his wife that if she didn't he would shoot her. During his interview he was asked if he had anything in his socks before going to the jail and he said he didn't. After being transported inside the	8/10/2017	Exonerated jail he was found to be in possession of meth which was found in his socks. I read narratives and spoke with narcotics Det. Bice about this case.
